

Ethicsboard project

Logo Competition Guidelines

Project partners are launching a contest to draw the logo for the project Ethicsboard. The logo shall identify the project in the simplest form. The logo shall be used in all the dissemination activities in the framework of the Ethicsboard. Find below more information about the competition and how to participate !!

Eligible candidatures

Schools and students, either as individuals or groups from all over Europe, are able to participate to participate in a competition to draw Ethicsboard's logo.

The logo will be attributed and used under Creative Common License (CC)

Logo's aims

It might show up the objectives of Ethicsboard. Please find more information at About the project
The participants shall take into account objectives of the project such as:

- To develop and promote entrepreneurship education based on codes of ethics and advance from the early age,
- advance from the early age, the sense of individual responsibility and social inclusion principles and familiarise school students with related laws, rules and social concepts such as inclusion, diversity, equality, gender-balance and non-discrimination under which a healthy business must operate
- Develop elementary entrepreneurship skills based on ethical values in primary and secondary school education
- Develop and advance Two Ethics & Entrepreneurship (E&E) Portfolios
- Improve collaboration between schools and parents' associations in order to jointly form good and ethical role models for the children
- Develop critical thinking and stimulate student's creative nature and motivation for ethical innovative thinking and cultivation of life skills
- Develop open and innovative education solutions on Ethics and Entrepreneurship applicable for primary and secondary school education based on Open Education Resources (OER)

How to participate

The offered logo's idea may be a drawing on paper or on a computer using a digital file. The logo concept shall be related to the objectives of the project. The logo shall identify the project in the simplest form.

Timing

Submissions are open from Wednesday 20th December to Wednesday 24th January 2018.

Evaluation

Submissions will be assessed by steering committee's members of Ethicboards acting on behalf of project's partners. The assessment will be based on how the logo reflects the objectives of the project. The winner will be announced on Wednesday 24th January 2018.

Award

The selected winner shall become the official logo of Ethicsboard. It shall be used in all dissemination material and no-profit activities in the framework of the project. He will get a strong promotion and visibility through the project's implementation.

The winner (individual and/or institution) will be awarded. He will receive a prize, online voucher up 100 EUR for a purchase of books.

